

CHORISTER, PARENT, CHOIR DIRECTOR - PLEASE READ AND SIGN BELOW

The RSCM Training Courses respect the judgment of all participants. Our policies have been established to help ensure safe and enjoyable training courses. The safety of all and the success of the program depend upon the actions of each participant.

Therefore, any RSCM participant whose attitude, conduct or behavior is detrimental to the course or to the reputation of the program, who endangers herself or other members of the group in any way, or who uses alcohol or tobacco, or any non-medical drug during the course, will be dismissed from the course at the discretion of the music director, managers, chaplain, or head proctor. Under such circumstances, all additional transportation, communication, accommodation, or other expenses incurred by the dismissed participant shall be the full responsibility of the participant's parent(s) or legal guardian(s). There is no refund whatsoever for participants who are expelled, regardless of the point at which they are dismissed.

Because this course offers an intensive experience in group living, we recommend that participants display not only a strong interest in singing, but an ability to work and play responsibly as well as to respect their peers and those in authority. We ask that the choirmaster not recommend any chorister whose behavior may potentially be disruptive to this kind of intensive social experience.

1. No use or possession of illegal drugs, alcohol or tobacco products. A chorister found in possession of any of these items will be sent home immediately at the expense of the parents or guardians.
2. Lights out will be strictly enforced. This time is defined as the time for bed – lights off, quiet, going to sleep.
3. Full participation is expected for scheduled activities (rehearsal, liturgies, meals, activities). The first aid staff and Course Managers must approve exceptions.
4. No visitors are allowed during the course. Parents are welcome to attend liturgies but are requested to limit interaction with participants. No one is allowed to visit participants in the dorms at any time.
5. No participants may leave the site of the course.
6. No one under age 25 may drive other course participants during the week.
7. Inappropriate social conduct will not be allowed.
8. Profanity and language not befitting Christian youth will not be allowed.
9. Personal phone calls, incoming and outgoing, will be prohibited. Cell phones must be given to the Head Proctor for the duration of the course or left at home.
10. Adjudication of these rules and any other behavioral issues will be under the jurisdiction of the Course Managers and Head Proctor.
